Analyzing Motives and Methods

1. Compare the research approaches and attitudes of Watson and Crick with those of Franklin and Wilkins. What are each approach's strengths and weaknesses?

2. How might faith and science connect? At what specific points in the story might Christian ideas such as the human calling to explore and understand the creation, the distorting effect of sin, or Christlike character be relevant to this story?

3. If you could change the way this story unfolded, what exactly would you change and why? Do you think you would have made different choices if you had been one of the players in the story?

4. What parallels do you see between the human dynamics of this story and things that happen in school? Are there any things you could help to change?
