

Website Evaluation
Website URL:
What is the philosophical orientation or bias of the site? For instance, does it promote a specific stance on certain faith and science questions?
List the major contributing writers. Include educational qualifications and fields of expertise.
Evaluate appearance and ease of use.
Does the site offer any ways of validating its information, such as referring to studies published in scientific or theological journals? Give examples.
Does the site show respect for differing views? How constructive and respectful is the tone in the main site content and in the forum or comments sections?	